

Interactive normal estimation

Prompt: Estimate the local normals around $\langle \text{point} \rangle [0.6, 0.4] \langle /point \rangle$ and smoothly propagate normals to the corresponding region while suppressing unrelated pixels to black. The output should show continuous color variations with no discrete regions, unlike segmentation results.

